2. WEBSITE USE POLICIES

The user declares that he or she is of legal age (over 18 years of age) and has the legal capacity to acquire the services offered via the website in accordance with these General Conditions, which he or she comprehends and understands in its entirety. In the event of contraction by a minor, Buggy Fun Marbella will not be responsible for the expenses incurred by the minor, parents or guardians.

Use of this website implies an agreement between the user and Buggy Fun Marbella, by means of which he or she expressly agrees to full and unreserved adherence to each and every one of the General Conditions published by Buggy Fun Marbella at the moment in which the User accesses this portal, especially those established on the limitation of liability of both Buggy Fun Marbella and any provider of tourist services or tours. Therefore, the User must carefully read the General Conditions each time he or she uses the website, given that the Conditions may have been modified since the last time it was accessed by the User.

Buggy Fun Marbella understands that those who use its website, booking the various activities and excursions, fulfil the necessary legal requirements regarding the ability to enter into these contracts and that, given this, tacitly agree to be subject to the terms and conditions in the following sections.

Buggy Fun Marbella is not responsible for any damages that may be suffered by the User in using this website, such as viruses or other harmful element, inconvenience or incident of any kind.

This website is solely and exclusively for the personal use of the User. Modification, reproduction, duplication, copying, distribution, sale, resale and other forms of exploitation for commercial or equivalent gains are prohibited.

The User agrees to use the services and contents of www.Buggy Fun Marbella.com in accordance with the Law and the general and particular terms and conditions of the services offered at any time, and must refrain from using them for:

- Introducing software or applications to the network with the intention of causing damage to the computer systems of Buggy Fun Marbella, its providers or third-party Users of the internal network or of this website.
- Performing illegal activities, contrary to good faith, customs, morals or public order.
- Performing activities that constitute a violation of the regulation on intellectual and industrial property or any other norm of the applicable legal order.
- Making speculative, false or fraudulent applications or contracts.

The User is responsible for providing his or her data correctly during the contracting processes established on the website, and the User must always enter all the identification information correctly and exactly as they appear on the ID or passport.

The User will answer to, in any case, the veracity of the information provided and will be responsible for communicating to Buggy Fun Marbella any modification thereto, with Buggy Fun Marbella reserving the right to exclude any User, who has provided false information, from the registered services, without prejudice to the other actions that proceed in Law.

Buggy Fun Marbella offers its website and access to it for free, dedicating time and effort in keeping it updated and in proper working order. The limitation of liability of Buggy Fun Marbella responds to and is based on the applicable legislation.

If for reasons of force majeure it is impossible to execute the purchases or reservations of services contracted through Buggy Fun Marbella, provided that Buggy Fun Marbella does not have the capacity to resolve said causes, it will be exempt from any social, legal or economic responsibility that affects such situations.

Buggy Fun Marbella reserves the right to deny or withdraw access to the website at any time and without prior notice to users who do not comply with these General Conditions or who have misused the services and content published on it.

3. MAKING RESERVATIONS

When a User makes a reservation, he or she implies acceptance of the Privacy Policy of Buggy Fun Marbella as well as the Conditions of Use and Contracting determined in this document and in the specific conditions of the providers of the services offered and will be subject to its compliance. The service is contracted directly with the provider.

The bookings made by the user of tours or activities from the providers that the user chooses will also therefore be subject to the specific terms and conditions that such providers establish for each case, and that the user accepts at the end of his or her reservation or purchase.

The user consents to accept and follow the terms and conditions of purchase to be established by each provider with which he or she chooses to contract, including the payment of any accrued amounts and compliance with any rules and restrictions regarding the availability of rates, products or services.

All of the reservations made on our website are recorded and therefore archived automatically in our system. Proof of this is the reservation confirmation page, which automatically indicates to the client his or her reservation code and all booking information. In addition, the system automatically sends the client's reservation information to his or her email along with his or her booking code and all of the information about the method of payment and confirmation of the activity. It will also always indicate a contact number for resolving any question or concern.

Buggy Fun Marbella provides a fast online reservation method available 24 hours a day in a secure manner. The reservations will be made via the Buggy Fun Marbella site and formalized with the company that carries out the activity in question. Given the diversity of the activities, they may require different methods of payment or different days of advance notice in order to make the reservation according to the demand and capacity of said activity or excursion.

The data entered by the User will be truthful and of his or her ownership, especially those related to the methods of payment.

Exceptionally, in the event that it is not possible to reserve the requested day online, Buggy Fun Marbella will be available to Clients via info@buggyfunmarbella.com and will be responsible for solving the problem or proposing other alternatives of interest. Likewise, in the event it is not possible to make the reservation online, the client may call the number (+34) 678 566 827, through which the reservation can be attempted to be made by telephone. In the event there are problems when making a reservation, Buggy Fun Marbella is available to Clients via the methods indicated in the "Contact" section.

Given that Buggy Fun Marbella acts as an intermediary, each reservation is communicated automatically and in real time to the Company that offers each activity. As there are many activities and many different providers, it will not be possible to contract more than one activity with each reservation, so Clients should make as many reservations as activities or excursions they wish to hire.

After making the reservation, a confirmation will automatically be sent to the email provided. In the event this is not received and once the spam inbox has been checked, you may contact Buggy Fun Marbella in order to resend confirmation manually. With the exception of theme parks, it is not necessary to print the confirmation. It is enough to show it on any mobile device. In the theme parks, only the first page of the sent PDF needs to be printed. Certain providers may require the printout.

The reservation document includes, in every case, the name of the Company providing the activity that has been contracted as well as its contact information. If the reservation includes transportation, the bus will include either the name of the company or the activity that has been contracted in order to identify it.

In order to avoid a lack of availability or limitations of any kind, it is recommended that the reservation be made as far in advance as possible.

The User will be responsible for any illegal act that differs from the realization of the reserved activity. Should Buggy Fun Marbella consider the existence of such a possibility, it will be entitled to cancel the reservation in question.

Likewise, the User agrees, when contracting through Buggy Fun Marbella, that it acts as a mere intermediary in the reservation and hiring of activities and excursions offered by the various companies and does not assume the risk and fortune of the operations. Neither is it responsible for information provided by the different providers.

4. MODIFYING RESERVATIONS

There will be no extra cost for the Clients to modify the date of their reservation to a different one through reliable means, provided that it is at least 48 hours before the date of the reservation and there are places available. For said modification, you can contact either the provider of the activity or Buggy Fun Marbella.

Tourist activity is affected by multiple urban circumstances (i.e., road closures, local events, etc.), logistical circumstances (i.e., highway closures, infrastructures, construction, etc.), climatological circumstances (i.e., rain, snow, state of alert, sea conditions, etc.) and geopolitical circumstances (i.e., manifestations, riots, holidays, etc.) outside our capacity of control. Buggy Fun Marbella's providers may slightly modify the contents of the reservations when, due to this type of seen or unforeseen circumstance, the routes, schedules and visits cannot be performed in the same way as depicted in the online offer. In such case, the providers will try to provide the service in the best possible way, substituting services that could not be provided for other services of similar objective and value.

5. CANCELLING RESERVATIONS

The cancellation of the reservation of the different activities and excursions offered will be subject to the policies and terms of the provider Company that offers them. In general, up to 48 hours before enjoying the service or activity, the Client may cancel and the amount paid is fully refunded. However, during the last 48 hours, the cancellation may involve penalties that will be clearly stated in the service offer. In any case, cancelling within the last 24 hours forfeits the right to any refund.

If any activity has a different cancellation policy, this will be reflected in the offer, during the reservation process and in the confirmation or voucher of the reservation.

The provider, however, may cancel the reservation at any time for causes of force majeure and always thinking about the safety of the users, automatically refunding the quantity paid without the User being able to claim any additional amount (i.e., taxi, travel to the pick-up point or to the location of the activity). In these cases, the provider will notify the User as soon as possible via the contact methods indicated on his or her reservation. It is the User's responsibility to be reachable through these means.

6. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

Buggy Fun Marbella is not responsible for any inconvenience, accident, damage or problem caused by force majeure or incidentally beyond its control.

Buggy Fun Marbella offers on its site a great diversity of leisure and sports activities that require the User to have full physical and psychological capabilities. It is the User's responsibility to inform Buggy Fun Marbella or its providers of any circumstances related to his or her health that may pose a risk to the User or third parties during the realization of the activity, enabling Buggy Fun Marbella and its providers to reject the reservation.

In the event the User is not present for the reserved excursion or activity, no refund will be made and the amount paid will be lost. Likewise, Clients are subject to the fulfilment of the pick-up and transportation times of each of the contracted activities.

When choosing the option of “pick-up at the hotel or a place close to it,” the User will have a designated time and meeting point and can consult these at any time on his or her reservation voucher. In the event the pick-up point is not the hotel entrance, Buggy Fun Marbella or the activity provider will send an additional email indicating the pick-up point with respect to your accommodation. It is the Client's responsibility to locate the pick-up point and call or contact the provider if he or she has any questions about the indicated pick-up point. The User must always be punctual, and as a general rule it is convenient to arrive about 5 or 10 minutes in advance of the indicated time.

If the User arrives late or is not at the agreed upon point, he or she will have no right to any refund for the amounts previously paid or any expenses occasioned.

If more than 10 minutes pass with respect to the indicated pick-up time and the bus/guide has not arrived, the User can call the telephone number +34 678 566 827 or the telephone number of the provider that appears on the reservation voucher.

Buggy Fun Marbella and the provider Company are not responsible for the possibility of delay in the predetermined Schedule or that the route of certain excursions may be altered as a result of the state of the roads, weather conditions or any other circumstances of force majeure outside the capacity of control of Buggy Fun Marbella or any of its providers.

Buggy Fun Marbella is not responsible for the loss of luggage or personal effects of the Users during the activities or excursions. Neither will it be responsible for damages suffered by the User nor his or her death on the different excursions when the User has acted recklessly, without due diligence or by disobeying the instructions and guidelines determined by the tour guides in said activity. Likewise, in the case of adventure activities or excursions, whether on land or any means of transport, the User accepts under their own responsibility when contracting these activities any risks that may be incurred when doing them for themselves and any minors whose custody they hold. Therefore, Buggy Fun Marbella recommends to Users that for the greatest protection and security, they should contract on their own the appropriate insurance policies to prevent and protect themselves from possible incidents, without prejudice to the guarantees offered by the providers.

Buggy Fun Marbella is exempt of responsibility in relation to the content of the provider's pages and any inconveniences arising from them.

The service providers are responsible for these to the extent that determines the incident, as well as having the permits, licenses and insurance necessary for the performance of their activities.

The User accepts responsibility for the economic consequences that derive from any use of this Website and that result from the unauthorized use of the personal and secret password of the User of the Website Buggy Fun Marbella through a third party.

Buggy Fun Marbella makes the greatest efforts to update, maintain and operate its website, offering the User this site as a tool for obtaining products and services. However, Buggy Fun Marbella cannot guarantee the absence of technical failures, the total security of the Web service, or that the web site is operative 24 hours a day, 7 days a week at all times.

Buggy Fun Marbella provides through its website different information about products and services offered or provided by third parties. Therefore it assumes no legal responsibility for the lack of authenticity, fidelity, accuracy and/or updating of the reviews contained in the offers of products and/or services offered on the website by the different providers of products and/or services.

In any case, Buggy Fun Marbella does not assume responsibility for the damages and prejudices that can accidentally be caused, directly or indirectly, from the purchase of a product or service offered on third-party website, by negligence of the supplier of said product or service or by other cause outside of Buggy Fun Marbella. Likewise, Buggy Fun Marbella assumes no responsibility for those third-party products and/or services that, although offered on the website of Buggy Fun Marbella, are not directly managed by us. The limitation of responsibility of Buggy Fun Marbella is provided by the applicable legislation for this purpose, and especially the one related to the sectoral regulation of tourist intermediaries.

If due to force majeure (including the declared, as well as by social, political, economic, strikes or any other type of instability affecting citizen security in general or of the User in particular) there are deficiencies in the reservations, confirmations and/or executions of any services contracted through Buggy Fun Marbella, and for situations that are not predictable or avoidable by Buggy Fun Marbella or even if it is impossible to comply with some of the agreed services, Buggy Fun Marbella and/or the collaborating companies of Buggy Fun Marbella are exempt from any indemnification obligation, according to the current legal provisions.

RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE CONTENT OF THE INFORMATION

The information contained on the website is offered for the convenience of the user. The management and updating of the information on offers, products or services, prices, routes, circuits, characteristics and any other facts and information relevant to the products and services offered through this website corresponds to the respective Providers of products, without BUGGY FUN MARBELLA being responsible for the maintenance, supervision or updating, nor having the possibility of verifying the accuracy, reliability, precision or completeness of said information.

BUGGY FUN MARBELLA in fulfilment of its standards of quality and integral attention to the user, develops its best efforts in order to continuously review the information published using its technology and qualified personnel; however, such information is not exempt from containing inaccuracies, mistakes or any kind of material error or arithmetic error generated in an involuntary way. BUGGY FUN MARBELLA does not guarantee the accuracy or reliability of the information or content of the website, nor can any implication of responsibility or liability be attributed to it that is attributable to the service providers for the erroneous data provided to them for the marketing of the services via the website. In particular, BUGGY FUN MARBELLA shall be entitled to refuse all liability in the case of typographical or numerical errors with respect to which it would have operated with diligence and immediacy and good faith both for its correction and to inform the User regarding it and to reimburse any amounts anticipated in such case; this exemption from liability will be especially applicable in the event of acquisition of services in which a sales price is detected that is disproportionately misaligned with respect to the reasonable market value of the product and therefore notoriously erroneous for the perception of the average user.

Comments and opinions: The user may publish his or her opinion regarding the contracted activity once it is performed. Buggy Fun Marbella reserves the right to publish and modify it. In any event, Buggy Fun Marbella is not responsible for the opinions expressed on its website, being the responsibility of the authors of said opinions.

The conditions of general use and hiring of Buggy Fun Marbella are read and accepted by the user in the English language, declaring full understanding of this one.

7. PRICE

Through the website, the user has access to information about the third party leisure activities related to tourism and may make reservations to BUGGY FUN MARBELLA for these products, paying part or all of it to BUGGY FUN MARBELLA and paying the rest of the total amount to the corresponding providers when completing the activity.

The procedure for requesting the return is detailed on the website ("Price Guarantee" section).

The price never includes possible tips for tour guides.
